STOCKHOLM—Ukraine in a statement reports a country wide revolution. Germans are pouring in reinforcements which now total 35 divisions. The peasants have several small armies armed with artillery and machine guns. The fight is due chiefly to the surrender of land by the Germans back to the landlords.

The Hazel B. Hill in charge of Capt. Binkley, Ted Sterling and Dan McCullough, took a party of about thirty Wrangell people up to the Great Glacier last Sunday. The day was a delightful one for the outing and everyone reports an enjoyable trip. The start was made before 9 o'clock in the morning and a stop was made at Boundary where Mr. Tervo and son joined the party. The glacier was reached about 3 o'clock and here a stay of three hours was made. Lunches had been enjoyed on the way up, the boat management providing coffee, and on reaching the glacier the party landed and spent the time in exploring the wonders of the place and admiring the beautiful scenery. The boat returned to Wrangell at about 9:30.

FISH SHIPMENTS

Fish shipments this morning on the Admiral Farragut were as follows:

Glacier Fish Co., 26 boxes; Ripley Fish Co., 12 boxes; M. B. Dahl and Co., 12 boxes; Columbia & Northern, 21 boxes and 16 firces. The Alaska Fishing and Packing company, 28 boxes salmon.

The Wrangell Hotel installed a new register Wednesday. The first entry in the new book was Bert Fowler and wife, Wrangell.

FOURTH OF JULY DULY CELEBRATED IN WRANGELL

For the first time in many years, Wrangell had a rainless Fourth of July. It was not a cloudless day but the clouds were high and the weather ideal for all purposes.

The parade started from the school grounds promptly at 10 o'clock, led by the Native band. They were followed by the Redmen, Liberty float, Moose, boys and citizens. The float was a charming feature of the parade and attracted a great deal of attention. It was beautifully decorated in the national colors and under the canopied top sat in state, Miss Florence Billon as the Goddess of Liberty. It would be difficult to find a fairer Goddess. She was surrounded by a number of white-clad little girls waving flags. Other little girls, also carrying flags, followed the float. The line of march was on Church street to St. Philip's Church, west to Front street, north on Front Street to F. Matheson's store where the turn was made, and back to the Redmen's hall for the exercises. The decorating committee had hung red, white and blue streamers from side to side across Front street and the flags of the Allies were mingled conspicuously with the flags of our own country. The effect was pleasing and inspiring.

The Redmen's hall was also attractively decorated for the occasion and the large audience filled it to the doors and accorded every number hearty applause. Closely interwoven with the joyousness of the occasion were touches of pathos, the feeling that while we celebrate the fact that liberty was won in the long ago, the possession of it is menaced by a ruthless enemy at the present time and no one knows how much of our future will elapse before a secure and honorable peace is ours once more. F. E. Bronson presided, and opened the program with a few well chosen remarks, after which the audience sang America and Adj. Habbirk gave the invocation. Katherine and Glen Matheson and Dorothy and Marjorie Johnson told in a song what we are going to do to a certain William across the sea and the sentiments expressed evidently found favor with the audience. John Grant, Jr. gave a recitation, "Independence Day Plans," which was very well received. Miss Grace Wigg in red, white and blue costume sang "The Stars and Stripes" and "They Were All Out of Step But Jim" for an encore. Both selections were very enjoyable. William Habbirk recited "The Outer Guard" in his usual capable way. Miss Froese, who was to sing "Keep the Home Fires Burning," became ill while singing and made a brave attempt to go on with her song but had to retire. The opening lines proved Miss Froese to be the possessor of a very pleasing voice and it is hoped that she may be heard again under more favorable circumstances. Following "The President's Fourth of July Address," Mrs. Warren sang "Somewhere In France Is a Lily" and in response to the hearty encore, "I'm Writing to You, Sammy," Oxenham's beautiful "Edith Cavell, Red Cross Martyr" was very feelingly recited by Miss Belle Hood and this was followed by "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" sung by the entire gathering. The accompanists for the various musical numbers were M. S. E. B. Mitchell and W. H. Warren. Mr. Chas. A. Garfield was the orator of the day and his address was in every way worthy of the close attention it received. After a resume of the conditions leading up to the present war, an expression of confidence in our President and the people of the land, and the advice to those whose loyalty is still across the sea to go back there, Mr. Garfield spoke of the historical interest centered in Wrangell and of the good work done by our people in our present hour of need. He closed his address with a beautifully worded apostrophe to the flag and the hall rang with applause. The program came to an end with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

Early in the afternoon, Front street was thronged with people waiting for the sports to begin. From the first race to the slim horse contest, the events were enthusiastically followed. The Street Sports committee certainly deserve credit for the excellent program of sports and the efficient way in which it was handled. Wrangell once more demonstrated her patriotism by awarding all prizes in Thrift and War Savings Stamps. At intervals the Native Band, stationed outside the Bank building, discoursed popular music. Following the sports, a baseball game was announced, the proceeds to go to the Red Cross. $31.25 was realized from this game. The entire celebration showed that the various committees had been untiring in their efforts and they are to be congratulated on the splendid success of the day. Wrangell can always be depended upon to go the whole way in any undertaking, which proves that there are many live wires in the community—and no dead ones. Two dances closed the celebration that evening. One was at the Rex, following the show, with the North Star Orchestra furnishing the music, and the other was given at the Rink by the Native Band. Both were well attended. The Native Band will place the proceeds of their dance, which amounted to about $96, in the instrument fund. The band is one of Wrangell's assets and is deserving of liberal patronage.

Fourth Observations

Credit for the good weather is no doubt due Chairman Thomas Dalgity of the Parade Committee. Mr. Dalgity was heard several days before the Fourth asking a number of the ladies of Wrangell to pray for favorable weather so his parade would be a success. It was fortunate for the celebration that he asked help in this matter as the outcome might have been different had he depended upon his own efforts. However, Mr. Dalgity knows his own limitations.

The fat ladies' race failed to materialize.

Six boys had all the pie they wanted—for once in their lives.

Chairman Corser of the Program Committee is resourceful and poetic. Failing to find a recitation for any given occasion, he takes his pen in hand and writes one. "Independence Day Plans," recited by John Grant, Jr. was written by Rev. Corser.

We know now who are the fat men of Wrangell. We thought we did before but we are mistaken, it seems. In the race for fat men, the fleetest of the fleet-footed fat ones was Ted Sterling. C. Mundy was second, Capt. Sid Barrington third, and bringing up in the rear, but undaunted, were M. O. Johnson, Thos. Dalgity and Adj. Habbirk. Who says fat men can't run?

It was a safe and sane Fourth—and a dry one. Everyone had a good time. Money was not scarce: Witness the generous prizes and elaborate decorations. If a few sighed for the days that used to be, the vast majority appreciated the good order, and the fact that one was spared, this year, the sight that frequently marred celebrations in the past.

In connection with the exercise held in the Redmen's hall the morning of the Fourth, did you happen to notice the exceptionally fine programs? A great deal of time and thought and care went into their making so they might be fitting souvenirs of the great National celebration and be sent away to friends with a feeling of pride that such work can be done in Wrangell.

Capt. Hill Barrington has converted the Hazel B. II into a floating fish station which will operate this season at Cape Fanshaw. Mr. Barrington expects to put up 2000 barrels of salt salmon. The gas boat Clara will be used as a tender. In making shipments Mr. Barrington states that he will connect with boats passing or make runs into Wrangell.

THE REDMEN'S DANCE

The Independence Day celebration was ushered in as early as the evening of the 2nd when the Redmen gave their annual dance, the proceeds of which were given to the Red Cross. The Redmen's Fourth of July ball is one of the leading social events of the year in Wrangell and is always eagerly anticipated. This affair outshone previous efforts. Three musical organizations furnished music for the occasion—the Native Band, the North Star Orchestra and the Spanish Orchestra.

The Rink had been beautifully decorated for the event by a committee headed by Ole Johnson. Pennant-shaped streamers of red, white and blue were festooned from the ceiling and balcony and large flags brightened the walls. In the center of the hall an artistic enclosure had been arranged by means of greenery and bunting, and here the string orchestras were stationed in turn, the band occupying the balcony. At the end of the hall was a screened booth where Mesdames Bronson, Campbell and Mason dispensed delicious punch to the thirsty dancers. The decorations and the dainty gowns of the women made the scene a festive one. The music was excellent and the dancing spirited and it was well into the morning hours before the strains of "Home Sweet Home" were heard. E. A. Lindman was floor manager.

During the evening a handsome bedspread, crocheted by Mrs. Ann Peffer of Marysville, Cal., mother of Mrs. L. Schott, was raffled. Little Kendall Neville was chosen to draw the lucky number and Tony Carlson of the A. P. A. cannery was found to be the winner. Mr. Carlson immediately presented the spread to Miss Helen Sullivan, who is the guest of Mrs. Schott. The bedspread thus goes back to the city where it was made. Half the proceeds of the raffle will go to Marysville, Cal., Chapter of the Red Cross while the other half is to be given to the local Chapter.

Four large boxes of candy, donated by Mrs. W. C. Waters, were sold to the highest bidders by Auctioneer Dalgity later in the evening and netted the local Red Cross the sum of $28.50.

The Redmen's lodge on Tuesday evening extended a vote of thanks to the Wrangell Band, the North Star Orchestra, the Spanish Orchestra, Mrs. Peffer of Marysville, Cal., Mrs. W. C. SPENCER CASE

Miss Bertha Spencer of Toppenish, Wash., and Thomas Charles Case, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Case of this city, were married at the Courthouse by U. S. Commissioner Weber on Wednesday evening, July 3rd. Following the ceremony, a wedding supper was served at the Wrangell Restaurant to the members of the groom's family and a few intimate friends. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Case, Lawrence Case, George Case, Miss Annabelle Froese, James Lovett, Raymond Ready, Loyd White and the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Charles Case, Mr. Case, Sr., was very busy for a time after the ceremony, passing cigars and receiving congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Case will reside at Union Bay for the summer.

The treasurer of the local Red Cross Chapter, Donald Sinclair, received the sum of $153.75 from Klawock on Tuesday. The money was raised by passing a hat during the celebration on the Fourth. Bob Peratovich, the picture show man of Klawock, was so delighted with the generosity of the people that he gave complimentary performances for four hours in honor of the collection.

J. P. Anderson of Juneau, who is considered by many to be the foremost botanist of Alaska, escorted a number of interested people on a botanical excursion early Monday afternoon. It is reported that a considerable quantity of sphagnum moss of the variety that is valuable for surgical dressings can be found on the marsh above town.

J. P. Anderson, the Juneau florist, brought a shipment of beautiful potted plants to Wrangell the first of the week. They were displayed at the Wheeler Drug Store, where they attracted much attention and were quickly disposed of. Another shipment will arrive on the Spokane.

Mr. John Randall Dunn of Boston was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Levering while the Princess Sophia was in port Tuesday morning. Mr. Dunn is a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship and is touring the Interior to deliver a series of lectures.

The Moose Lodge is in receipt of a letter from Ellery Carlson, dated "U. S. S. C., 301, At Sea, June 19, 1918," in which he says in part: "I am more than anxious to get a shot at one (if no more) of the Kaiser's tin hearing, and would, if I could, sink his whole fleet. I find it hard keeping myself from getting sea-sick as this boat does love to roll. In fact, I find myself standing on my head half of the time. The other half I am out feeding the fish. We encountered some heavy weather on the way down, but find the ocean quite calm at the present time, though one never can tell when a storm will come up. Owing to strict censorship I find that I can't go into details making this letter what it might be."

Ellery's address is: Ellery C. Carlson, U. S. S. C. 301, Postmaster, San Francisco California.

John Wick who was brought over from Craig on the Columbia last week in a precarious condition is recovering from his illness and will be able to go back to work in about three weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Wick are occupying rooms in the Uhler building.

Mrs. H. C. Scudder of Thane was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Walker while the Sophia was in port last Friday on her way to Seattle. Mr. Scudder who was formerly with the Bureau of Fisheries is stationed at Camp Lewis.

Frank L. Clarke has enlisted in the Aviation Corps and is now at the Mather Field aviation school at Sacramento. Mr. Clarke is well known in Wrangell, having formerly resided here. He is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Case.

CALL FOR FIVE VOLUNTEERS FROM WRANGELL

Juneau, July 9-10, 1918, Matheson.

No. A701. Under induction call number 880, you are hereby directed to induct five white registrants and have them report to your board not later than 10 o'clock on the morning of August 1, 1918.

Immediately publish notice that voluntary inductions not to exceed number above stated will be accepted by you from registrants until 10 o'clock on the morning of July 22.

You will give preference to unemployed registrants, if any.

You will make necessary preparations, on before July 22, to immediately issue at that time orders for involuntary induction of a sufficient number of white registrants to complete above number of your quota, having them report to your board not later than 10 o'clock on the morning of August 1. If at any time prior to August 1 a sufficient number of volunteers and registrants involuntarily inducted are assembled, forward them without delay to mobilization camp.

If registrants for induction are at other places in Alaska, or in the States, instruct them by wire to report to the nearest local board, have them wire you name of board, and mail induction papers, as required by Section 148.

Except as to voluntary inductions, quota must be called in order of liability of white registrants for service.

If, during the time between July 22 and August 1 registrants not subject to involuntary induction then apply to you to be voluntarily inducted, you will accept not to exceed two additional white registrants. The men must be sent to nearest mobilization camp.

You will particularly observe the requirements of Sections 158 and 169 and other regulations regarding mobilization. See amendments Section 158. Make no variation unless specifically authorized. Balance of current quota will probably be called in September or October. Acknowledge receipt by wire stating whether fully understood.

HYDABURG PATRIOTIC

The report of the Hydaburg patriotic celebration received by the Sentinel this morning too late for publication. The following letter was received by Mr. Grant in regard to the event.

Hydaburg, Alaska,
July 8, 1918.

Mr. J. G. Grant,
Chairman Red Cross Committee
Wrangell, Alaska.

Dear Sir:
I am enclosing herewith Hydaburg Trading Company's check $81.33, Hydaburg's Fourth of July contribution to the Red Cross fund.

When all bills incurred in celebrating the Fourth had been paid we had a small balance, which was increased to the above amount by contribution. I will add that this post office sold approximately $200.00 of War Stamps on July 4 and 5, so you may know that our celebration was both sane and patriotic.

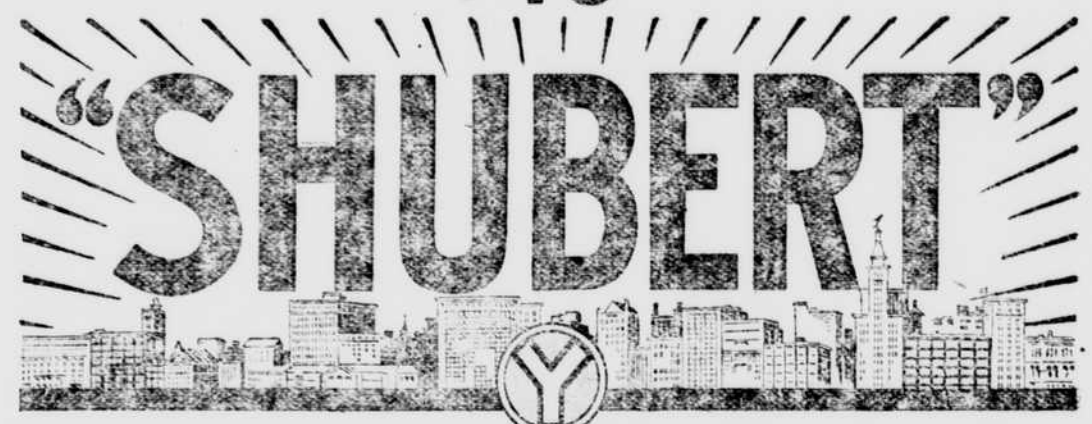

Very truly yours,
J. Percy Wells,
Government Teacher.

Judd S. Fish from The Dalles, Ore., arrived in Wrangell on the Despatch Wednesday to visit W. E. Parrott, who is an old friend of Mr. Fish, at Brown's Island.

Miss Edith Snuck of Klawock and Andrew Hanson were married by Adj. Habbirk on the evening of July 4. Mr. and Mrs. Hanson will reside in Wrangell.

PRESIDENT'S FOURTH OF JULY SPEECH

Was Read in Wrangell on Independence Day by a Representative of the Four Minute Speakers

Organization

You are met, my fellow citizens, to commemorate the signing of the Declaration of Independence, which marked the awakening of a new spirit in the lives of nations. Since the birth of our republic we have seen the spirit grow. We have heard the demand and watched the struggle for self government spread triumphs among many people.

We have come to regard the right to political liberty as the common right of humankind. Year after year within the security of our borders we have continued to rejoice in the peaceful increase of freedom and democracy throughout the world, and yet, now suddenly we are confronted with a menace which endangers everything that we have won and everything the world has won. In all its old insolence, with all its ancient cruelty and injustice, military autocracy has again armed itself against the pacific hopes of men. Having suppressed self-government among its own people by an organization maintained in part by falsehood and treachery, it has set out to impose its will upon neighbors and upon us.

One by one it has compelled every civilized nation in the world either to forego its aspirations or to declare war in their defense. We find ourselves fighting for our national existence.

We are face to face with the necessity of asserting anew the fundamental right of free men to make their own laws and choose their own allegiance, or else permit humanity to become the victim of a ruthless ambition that is determined to destroy what it cannot master.

Against its threat the liberty loving people of the world have arisen and allied themselves. No fear has deterred them and no bribe of material well being has held them back.

They have made sacrifices such as the world has never known and their resistance in the face of death and suffering has proved that the aim which animated the German effort can never hope to rule the spirit of mankind against the horror of military conquest; against the emptiness of living in mere bodily contentment; against the resolution not to become a part of a state that knows neither truth nor honor.

The world has so revolted that even people long dominated and suppressed by force have now begun to stir and arm themselves. Centuries of subjugation have not destroyed the racial aspiration of many distinct peoples of eastern Europe, nor have they accepted the sordid ideas of their political and military masters. They have survived the slow persecutions of peace, as well as the agonies of war, and now demand recognition for their just claims to autonomy and self government. Representatives of these races are with you today, voicing their loyalty to our ideals and offering their services in the common cause.

I ask you, fellow citizens, to unite with them in making this, our Independence Day, the first that shall be consecrated to a Declaration of Independence for all the peoples of the world.

WASHINGTON.—Roosevelt today asked Congress to return him the Nobel peace prize which he donated to assist in promoting industrial peace and which has never been used. He said he proposed to expend it in war relief work.

Why be satisfied with the wear you get from ordinary boots

when you get so much more from "Hi-Press?"

This is no idle claim, but a fact proven by miners, farmers and construction workers from Alaska to Mexico. "Hi-Press" is made by a new and better method—the greatest advance in footwear in fifty years.

We use the toughest rubber ever evolved—actually the same kind that goes into Goodrich Auto Tires. There seems to be no wear-out to it. And the boot is molded INTO ONE SOLID PIECE! Can't leak or come apart—and it's wonderfully comfortable.

When next you hit the trail try the Shupac—shown here. The White Hip is best for the sluices, and there are many other styles. Ask for the footwear with the Red Line 'Round the Top—that's "Hi-Press."

NOTICE TO FISHERMEN

We have now established our branch here for handling any quantity of fresh salmon from the Stikine river and other points, and will pay whatever the price may be set by the Food Administration. OUR MOTTO: "A Square Deal to the Fishermen." L. C. BERG, Local Manager.

Religion, Withstanding Cynicism, Has Survived Through the Ages. Go to Church.

A GREAT number of the people who GO TO CHURCH are men and women with the WISDOM OF YEARS AND EXPERIENCE. Many young people who seem to REJOICE WHEN THEY ARE CALLED CYNICS not only fail to GO TO CHURCH, but flippantly refer to the movement.

One great writer said, "WHO ARE A LITTLE WISE THE BEST FOOLS BE." Another said, "A LITTLE LEARNING IS A DANGEROUS THING." Churches have survived through the ages. One hates to think what would become of this world without churches and religion. The churches TEACH RIGHT-EOUSNESS. And yet there are some young people who are disposed to take lightly this splendid GO TO CHURCH movement.

Happily they are in the great minority, and it is certain that they will soon be moved by the AWAKENING OF RELIGION over the land. In many churches in the west preachers report a SPLENDID ATTENDANCE OF YOUNG PEOPLE.

THE DAY IS GONE WHEN IT CAN BE SAID THAT THE CHURCH IS ALL RIGHT FOR OLD WOMEN AND CHILDREN. GO TO ANY OF THE GREAT CITIES IN THE COUNTRY AND NOTE THE REAL BIG MEN, THE MEN YOU'D LIKE TO KNOW, AT DIVINE SERVICE. THEY ARE PROUD TO BE SEEN IN CHURCH. NO, INDEED, THE CHURCH IS NOT FOR THE OLD AND THE WEAK. IT IS FOR THE YOUNG AND STRONG. IT IS FOR EVERYBODY, FROM THE HIGHEST TO THE LOWEST. PRESIDENT WILSON HAS EMPHATICALLY GIVEN HIS APPROVAL TO THE GO TO CHURCH MOVEMENT.

If you are one of the young men who has been reached by the GO TO CHURCH appeal and now regularly attend church, you are to be commended. But you can do more. You can induce that friend of yours who is inclined to cynicism to join the GO TO CHURCH throng. Argue with him. Plead with him. Show him the right way. If you do this, you'll be doubly rewarded.

Get him to GO TO CHURCH next Sunday.

Get him to GO EVERY SUNDAY.
